Cashless Environment

Mountainview works on a cash-less basis for the safety of the guests and our staff.

Every guest is issued a card and an amount is loaded upfront using the guests' credit or debit card. Once the amount is depleted, it can be topped up again.

Should there be an amount refundable, it will be done directly to the client's credit card.

Should the client use a debit card, the refund will be done manually by eft transfer during the week after the wedding.
